1st April 2016

Closing date for entries to the AGFR Tournament.

Accommodation:

I have been in touch with the Mercure /The Oaks Resort at Salamander and the Stockton Beach Holiday park and it is pleasing to note that there has been much activity for early May. I remind those of you who haven't booked yet and are undecided what to do that there are quite a few like minded people who live on or around the course at Pacific Dunes who are willing to billet people for the week. We have already had takers for this however there are still vacancies if you wish to go this way. Most of the people are from our Vets Club and will be helping in some way during the week of golf. Obviously we would like to give them as much notice as possible so if you could advise us if this is the way you wish to go sooner than later it would be appreciated. Just drop me a line at wbp.finance@bigpond.com

Non Golfer Tours

In Newsletter 3 we gave you an insight into the wonderful tour arranged for the Non Golfers in Newcastle. If you missed it just open up Newsletter 3 on our web page. This month we want to cover the tour not only for the Non Golfers but the guests as well to what we believe is the best Garden in Australia namely the HUNTER VALLEY GARDENS. Situated approximately 50 minutes bus ride from Pacific Dunes is this spectacular garden. For the Non Golfers it is included in their registration fee. For Guests it is $65 which includes the bus trip, entry into the gardens and lunch. I am sure you will agree with me well worth every penny spent.

Here are some photos of what to expect.

The Story Book Garden

The Rose Garden

The Formal Garden

Border Garden

The Indian Mosaic Garden

The Lakes Walk

The Italian Grotto

This tour includes a train tour around the Gardens together with visits to the Hunter Valley Chocolate Company Hunter Valley Liquers & Baerami Olives including tastings , and much much more. For more information on Hunter Valley Gardens please go to their website. <http://www.huntervalleygardens.com.au/>
